VERY IMPORTANT – PLEASE READ

Every father/daughter team will be divided into groups before the day of the event. You will receive your assignments when you arrive. These groups are designed for the girls and their dads to make new friends. Please explain to your child that you will be with your friends in the sleeping units but there is a possibility that you will not be with your friends during your rotation of stations and the rotation assignments will not be changed. We ask that you do not deviate from the group schedule you are given. You will be asked to return to your group if you do. Thank you for your understanding. Following this rule is necessary in order for the event to run smoothly.
